INTRODUCTION

As departing Seniors we come to realize what a part our Alma Mater has played in our lives thus far.

Supposing we turn the hour glass upside down and take a quick glance at our previous years in school.

Our first day inside the protecting walls at Fostoria High were frightening ones but later, as we came to know the benefit to be derived, we learned to take the advice of the faculty and these lessons became profitable.

The sand trickled slowly through the glass at first but increased in speed until now, as our graduation from Fostoria High school is near, we realize more fully what our school life has meant to us.

As we leave, we wish to thank our faculty members under whose guidance and direction we have been during our school years, and for their kind help in class and club organizations.

ADMINISTRATION

The Superintendent and Principal of Fostoria High School must face many problems put before them both by the school at large and by the people of Fostoria. To master these situations and to elevate the standards of Fostoria High school, these men must be well trained in various fields. Throughout the year the Superintendent and the Principal have devoted their all to making our Alma Mater a better institution of study and learning.

As in all things, harmony must be had before things can function properly. The administration perfected this harmony to such a degree that perfect cooperation between Faculty and Students reigned this year.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Mr. Ivan Harrison, clerk; Mr. Floyd J. Kinnaman, Mr. H. L. Zemer, Mr. D. D. Schlatter, president; Mr. C. D. Houser, vice president; Mr. R. J. Carter, Superintendent H. L. Ford.

The Board of Education has a very difficult task indeed as it attempts to serve the citizens of Fostoria by endeavoring to give its youth the highest degree of educational training available. Our board believes in long-time planning and is looking as far ahead as possible in the hope of adapting, widening, and deepening the scholastic opportunities offered to Fostoria boys and girls. These men have accepted a large responsibility. They deserve our faith and appreciation.

SENIOR DEAN OF GIRLS

Miss Mabel J. Bourquin, who has been associated with Fostoria High School for many years, teaches eleventh grade English in her class room, besides attending to extra curricular activities in Senior High clubs.

She is patient and helpful in guiding girls over the stumbling blocks so prevalent in the routine of school life. Kindly, benevolent, and jovial, she makes an especially valuable friend and instructor.

SENIOR HIGH

JUNIOR DEAN OF GIRLS

Miss Vera Eger plays an important part in Fostoria High School life. She aids many in her welfare work, performs her tasks well, and guides those girls who need assistance. Energetic, hard-working, and whimsical, she makes Jr. High school life very attractive.

JUNIOR HIGH

SENIOR DEAN OF BOYS

A friend to whom high school boys may go for guidance and advice is the boys' dean, Mr. Nixon.

He has won much praise from the student body for his tireless efforts in promoting high school athletics and in helping the Senior High boys with their problems.

Senior High

Mr. W. W. Nixon

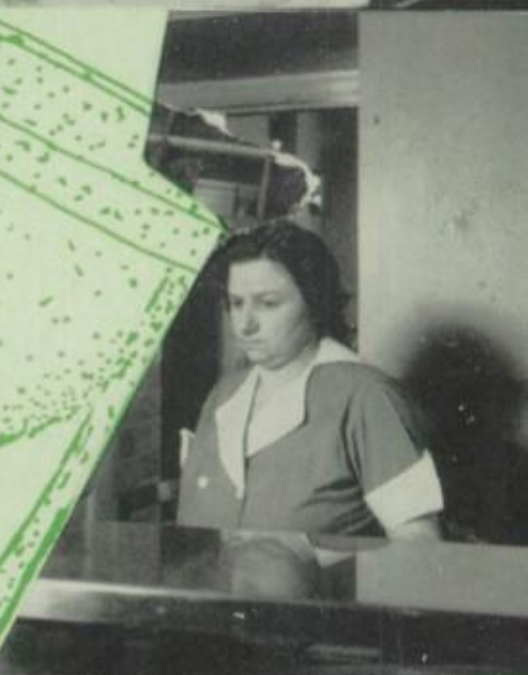

JUNIOR DEAN OF BOYS

Junior High

Mr. O. K. Caldwell

Mr. O. K. Caldwell, in his first year as Dean of the Junior High School, has portrayed the characteristics that are traditional of Fostoria High. Cheerful, helpful, and cooperative at all times, Mr. Caldwell well deserves the position of guardian of the Junior High students.

FACULTY

We cannot lay too much stress upon the part our faithful instructors have played in the moulding of our lives during this, our period of high school training.

The ideals formed during this period are those which determine our future standards of life and its meaning. The chief responsibility of the high school teacher is to influence the foundation of these ideals along the right lines. A fundamental ideal formed wrong is a life lost. To Superintendent H. L. Ford, Principal W. M. Hawk, and the faculty, we express our appreciation for their untiring efforts in upholding the scholastic standards of Fostoria High School.

STUDENT BODY

When one walks down the corridors of Fostoria High School there is an air of reverence and loyalty. The students have put their best foot forward this year to live up to the high ideals and heritage of the school.

Everyone of them has displayed their loyalty and faith in the United States of America by purchasing War Stamps.

Whenever called upon, one can depend on them to be ever ready and waiting to serve if it is at all possible.

SENIOR CLASS POEM

THE HOURGLASS

—Commencement 1943

*Silently, Time has glided through Without our really knowing;
Now only a few precious sands remain
To remind us of its going.*

*Youth must soon a challenge meet,
That leaves no place for sorrow;
As each grain passes through the glass,
Our eyes turn to the Morrow.*

*Someday we shall smile through tears,
Recalling those we could not hide,
As the final strains of Alma Mater
Gathered strength, then slowly died.*

*The sands are now running very low;
Only a few more grains remain
With sad, yet eager hands we wait,
To tip the glass again.*

The members of the class of 1943 are looking forward to a larger, more challenging world after four years of educational opportunities intended to prepare them for the future. Now they must step from the position of student to the even greater responsibility of citizenship. The Seniors have proved themselves worthy of the esteem with which they have been regarded by those about them. They have exhibited laudable skill and efficiency in the execution of their various capacities as leaders of the student body, heads of publications and athletic organizations, and officers of clubs.

It is the hope of those whom they leave behind that, having cooperated so wholeheartedly with our school spirit, and having contributed so much toward upholding the fine ideals of Fostoria High School, they will continue to keep alive its memories and contacts in later years.

JUNIOR
1944

IN MEMORIAM

Virginia
Welsch

An almost unparalleled success in nearly every line of endeavor has been the achievement of the Class of 1944. Three years of hard work has been the contributing factor in this accomplishment.

They have become an important part of our school life. In athletics, the Junior boys filled the positions of mainstays in many sports and proved good material for the development of future F.H.S. teams.

Particularly noticeable during the past year was the growing class spirit and distinctive personality of the Juniors. This should help them very much in solving the problems which they will meet next year and in their future lives.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

HOME ROOM PRESIDENTS
Jack Perkins, Jack Switzer, Bob Feisel.

The Sophomores have taken one more step toward their destination. They have put behind them their first year of Senior High School.

They have started to develop their ability by giving a class party, a play, and taking part in class projects. Next year they will be given a chance to develop leadership by being responsible for Junior Class dances, plays, and the Junior-Senior Prom.

Let's hope they will be as successful in the Junior Class as they were in the Sophomore Class.

F. H. S. IN THE WAR

FORWARD MARCH! Fostoria High students have marched right into school activities geared to fit them for service during war time.

Many high school youths are doing Red Cross work, both in our school service clubs and individually. In addition, our high school courses have been extended to include various types of technical training. In these ways, the youth of today have assumed their places in the war program.

Before this spring is over, many boys of the 1943 graduating class will take their places beside the scores of Fostoria High graduates who are already serving in our armed forces. These young men are a symbol of the bravery and courage imbedded in the hearts of true Americans.

ALMA MATER

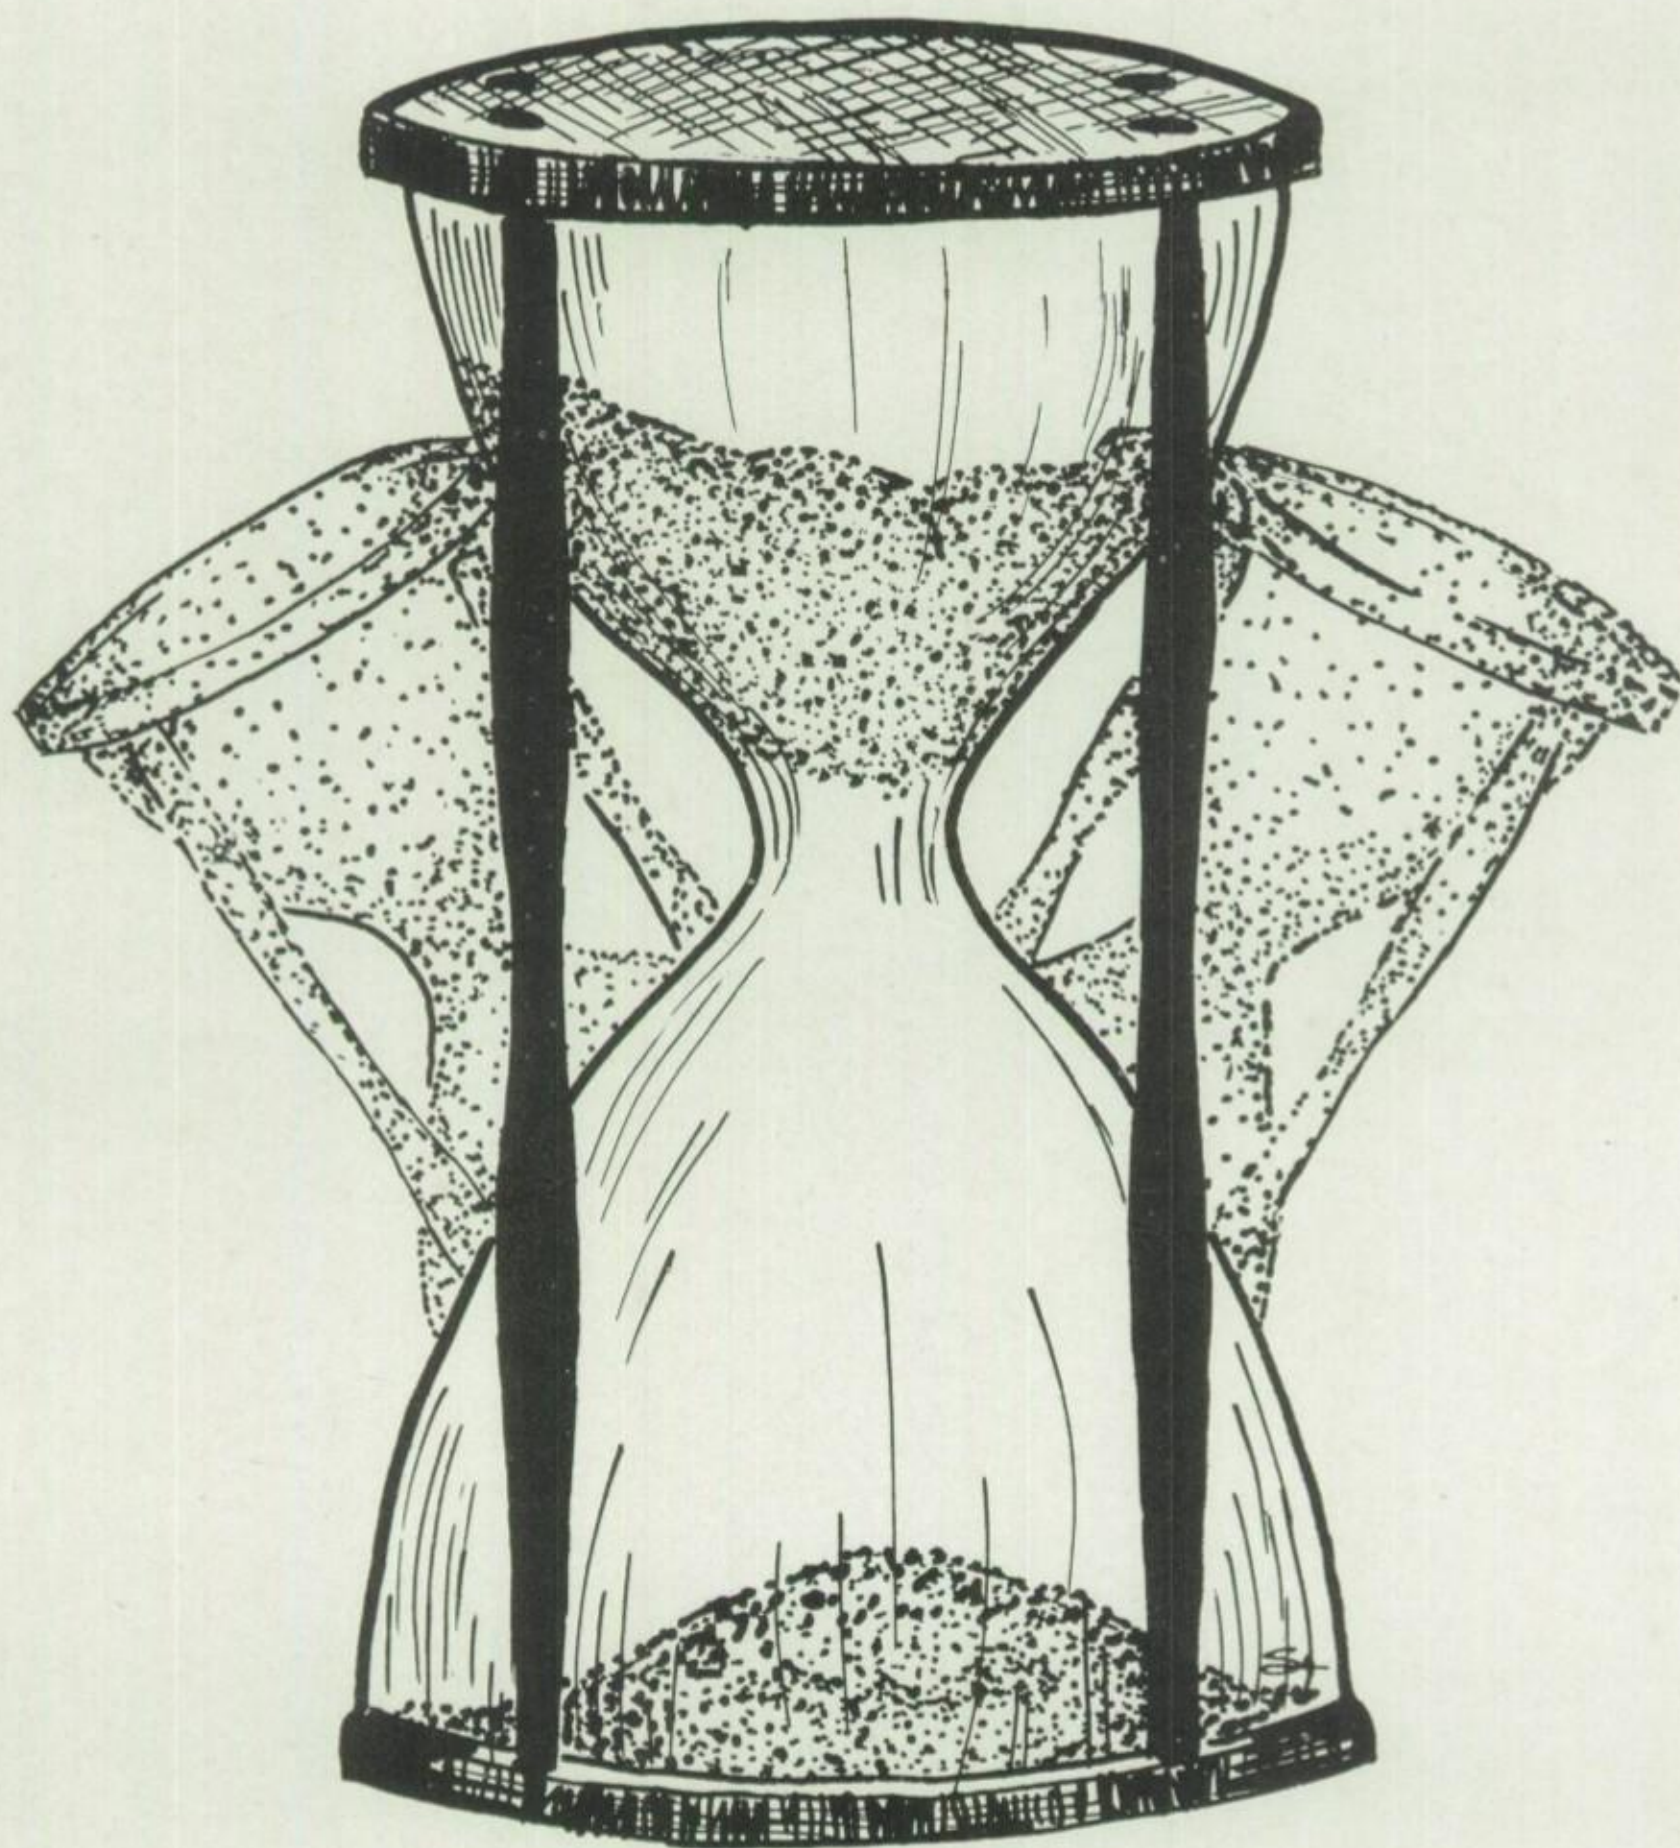

ALMA MATER, in Forty-Three—
Offers her class to the land of the free . . .
Gives her class to the khaki suits
To starched, white dresses, to muddy boots;
She gives her youth, her loyal sons,
To man the machines, and man the guns.

ALMA MATER, with head held high
Thinks of her sons in the clear blue sky
Fighting for freedom, fighting for life,
Fighting through hunger, fighting through strife.
Women in khaki and women in jeans
Know what the "Star Spangled Banner" means.

ALMA MATER proudly sees
Her students working in factories
Making ships, tanks, munitions;
Sending them fast to fighting positions;
Drilling with presses, fighting deadlines,
Boosting production, and making headlines.

ALMA MATER, sadly though,
Thinks of the ones who'll have to go—
Thinks of her students who won't come back . . .
Thinks of Johnny and Sue and Jack,
Who'll give their best on land and sea
For this blessed Land of Liberty.

MUSIC

"The highest graces of music flow from the heart."—Emmons

We love music for the treasured memories, buried hopes, and tender feelings it imparts to us. Its charms bring peace to the troubled mind and soul. Music is the universal language.

Participating in musical activities is one of the most important phases of our school life. In later life, all those who have shared an interest in music will come to realize the benefits derived.

INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC

Under the very able leadership of Director A. Jerd Bayless, the band and orchestra have provided excellent concerts and entertainments. The well chosen variety of music, ranging from symphonic to swing, entertained everyone.

The basketball band and pit orchestra, which are composed of the supposedly "cream of the crop," have done fine work.

As in previous years, the indispensable pit orchestra played for our assemblies, various plays, and other entertainments.

To Mr. Bayless and the instrumental department go our congratulations for the fine job they have done.

DIRECTOR

A. Jerd Bayless

With her silver baton spinning, our new drum majorette, Betty Marxen, painted a picture of dashing color as she set the pace for Fostoria High's marching band. Uniformed in red and white, Betty skillfully led the Band in their clever exhibitions and formations.

Betty will be back again next year to guide our band to another musical victory!

Mr. A. Jerd Bayless displayed remarkable ability this year in the management of the marching band and also the other instrumental departments.

Many new routines were cheered by spectators as the band performed.

The concert band and the orchestras also proved that under a careful director like Mr. Bayless, instrumental music can brighten our Alma Mater.

VOCAL MUSIC

Those who have heard the fine performances of the vocal music department will agree with everyone when it is said they are "tops." Vocals alone cannot bring together such a splendid department, but co-operation, consideration, and dependability are the main characteristics in succeeding to a very high standard.

More than ever, we will need these characteristics, for we will be sending faith and hope into the future with the singing of our country's hymns.

Mr. James Middleton

Director

What can be done in the way of music, under a real organizer, at Fostoria High, has been well illustrated during the past year. Mr. James Middleton came here this year from New Bremen, Ohio, and has staged a successful operetta and a number of musicals pertaining to holiday seasons.

Mr. Middleton cannot be thanked too much for the work he has done for the music department—and the school as a whole.

ATHLETICS

The Athletic Department of Fostoria High School this year has faced one of the most difficult problems possible. They were not alone, however, for nearly every high school in the country has been faced with the same problem. Should the high schools go ahead with inter-scholastic competition? There were many arguments concerning the abandoning of inter-scholastic sports for the duration because of the gasoline situation and the need for manpower. Fostoria High School decided, as did 75% of the high schools all over the country, to go ahead.

With no orders from authoritative sources, sports went ahead as usual at the school of the Redmen. Under Coach Trubey our football team had a most successful season. The Redmen wound up the season tied for the lead in the Buckeye League, as well as having credit for victories over outstanding independent teams of the state.

The basketball team, minus many regulars from last year's squad, because of graduation, did not fare as well as their brothers from the gridiron. They did develop many prospects for next year under Mr. Herbert, who has spent his first year as coach at F.H.S.

COACH

"Ike" Trubey

This year Mr. Trubey completed his sixth season as a football mentor at Fostoria High school. Since Mr. Trubey has been here, he has won twice as many games as he has lost. This, however, is not his only accomplishment. At the end of our schedule, the Redmen found themselves tied for first place in the Buckeye league.

Mr. Trubey's players have learned the meaning of good sportsmanship, and in winning or losing they have practiced it.

ASSISTANT COACH

Mr. Dale Herbert came to F.H.S. last year as a trainer and this year took over the job of assistant football coach. Mr. Herbert, a graduate of Bowling Green University, has had much practical experience in the sport he helps coach. He played on the varsity at this high school and at college.

COACH

Although Mr. Herbert's team was not too successful this year, they did, however, show quite a few thrilling spots. Under Mr. Herbert they have learned a pivot play and a fast break.

Probably the season's most thrilling game was that between Fostoria and Tiffin Columbian. The Redmen were outscored most of the way but put up a good battle in the last quarter and defeated Tiffin 44 to 37.

INTRAMURAL WINNERS

Although the girls' basketball team didn't achieve recognition throughout the city, we, the students of the high school, knew that it existed.

Betty Marxen led the winning group this year and will be here to play again next year.

The girls played on Tuesday evenings after school. Under the guidance of Miss Sturgeon, girls' physical education director, they were taught many things about sportsmanship.

PUBLICATIONS

By working together and performing their tasks to the utmost of their ability, the Annual Staff has again recorded the joys and sentiments of Fostoria High. Bringing together the events of 1943 and recording them for all time is a difficult task, but with cooperation and willingness to work, the staff of the 1943 Annual is proud to present to the school and student body the 1943 RED AND BLACK.

The sister publication of the annual, The Illustrated News Journal, has again successfully served the student body as the news agency of Fostoria High. Acquainting the students with what is happening at and around our school was the chief problem of the Journal. Although fewer publications were made this year, the Journal still maintained the standards set by those who originated our school paper.

1943 RED AND BLACK ANNUAL STAFF

First Row: Mr. C. N. Nacci, Literary Advisor; Carl Rouse, Editor-in-Chief; Nancy Shupe, Asst. Editor; Marj. Wilhelm, Literary Editor; Mr. Jess Powers, Business Advisor.

Third Row: Miss Ina Sponsler, Circulation Advisor; Bob Manecke, Asst. Advertising Manager; Connie Flechtner, Asst. Circulation Manager; Phyllis Smothers, Asst. Literary Editor; Miss Weldon Brooks, Advertising Advisor.

The Annual Staff, a group of competent Fostoria High Seniors, was selected for a difficult task. Their aim was to put out an Annual which would be the best possible, due to the war situation.

The Annual Staff was chosen in the middle of the first semester in order to give them plenty of time to produce a carefully planned year-book.

The committee members and the Annual heads were willing to work under the splendid supervision of Mr. C. N. Nacci and Mr. Jess Powers.

As to how well the staff has succeeded, we will allow the Red and Black to speak for itself.

In the Journalism class Mr. C. N. Nacci, advisor, has given the students his faithful and generous help. He has also given them opportunities to work in many fields of Journalism including, advertising, reporting, make-up, editorial work, newspaper management, and publicity.

"I want my Journal," is the cry that echoes throughout the corridors of Fostoria High school on the last Wednesday of every month. Answering this call is a group of student salesmen who get little praise for their fine job of distributing the Journals. Hats off to the Journal salesmen!

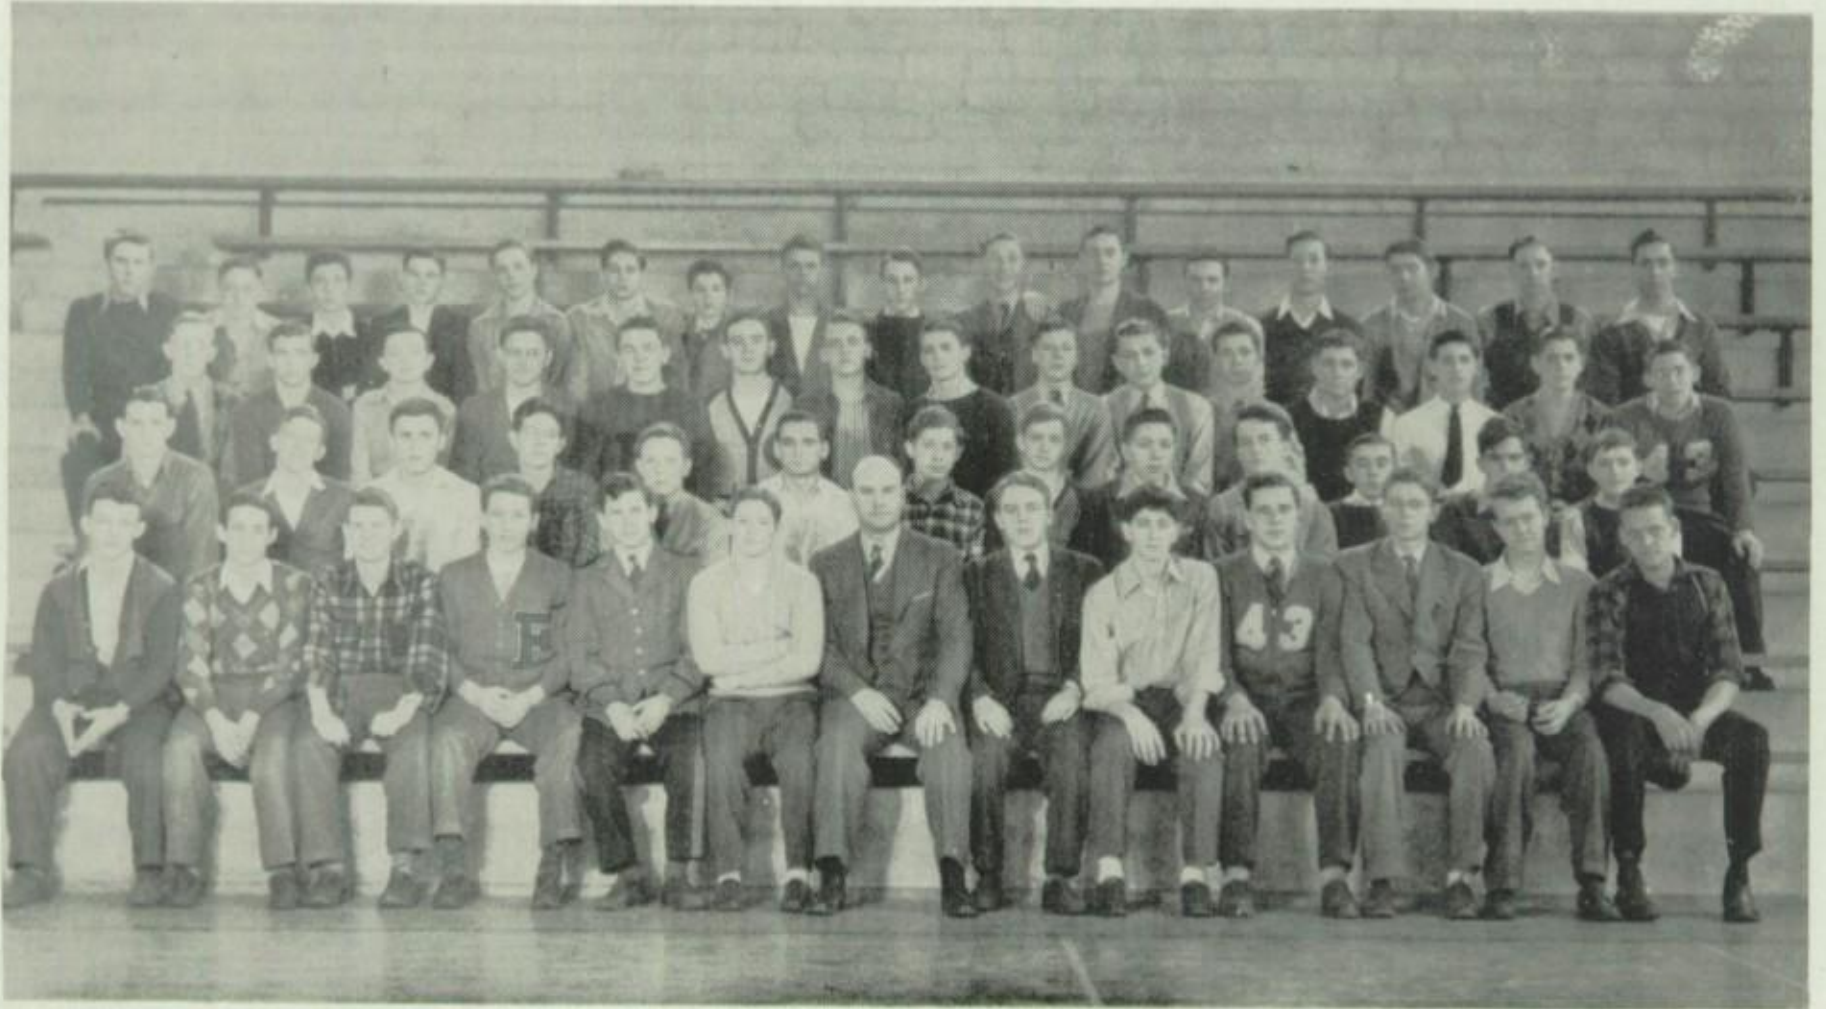

EXTRA CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Fostoria High school has always been noted for its opportunities in extra-curricular activities. Our many clubs, athletics, and musical organizations offer an equal chance to all pupils. The reason for any activities outside the regular school work is to get the students acquainted with working together.

The story is told of a fisherman who tried to paddle his boat with only one paddle. He worked hard but he got nowhere. The same is true of the student who tries to go through school without entering some extra-curricular activity. He may work hard, but he gets nowhere because he has not learned the advantage of working together.

HI-Y

The national organization of the Hi-Y was first introduced at Fostoria High school twenty-two years ago.

Senior and Junior boys are selected to join by the old members. Strict initiation rules test such selectees as to their sportsmanship.

Meetings are held every Wednesday noon in the music room. Programs consist of guest speakers, debates, and local people with talents.

"Clean living, Clean speech, Clean athletics, and Clean scholarship," is the well "stuck-to" motto of the Hi-Y boys.

"To find and give the best" has been the purpose of the Girl Reserves of F.H.S. for over twenty years.

Starting with a small group of thirty selected girls, the club has steadily grown until it now numbers about one hundred, and every Senior High school girl is eligible.

This year, as always, the Girl Reserves' dependability and willingness to serve have contributed greatly to the school spirit.

The National Honor Society is composed of five per cent of the Junior class and fifteen per cent of the Senior class. Selections are made by a faculty committee on the basis of the four cardinal principles of the society: Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service.

This group, throughout the year, has undertaken many projects for the betterment of the school. A continuous history of the high school has been put up to date and many new entries have been added to the National Honor scrapbook. Each issue of the Illustrated News Journal has contained an editorial written by the society. This year the society also undertook the editing of a Student Handbook to better acquaint students with their school.

Under the guidance of Miss Crawford and Mr. Hawk, the Ida L. McDermott Chapter of Fostoria High School is ever ready to serve the school and to keep firm its motto, "Noblesse Oblige."

Mr. C. F. Leiter presented four successful plays to the theater-going public this year. His excellent sense of dramatics and fine interpretation of script is something that Fostoria High has come to respect and value highly.

The All-School play, "Reserve Two for Murder," the Junior Class Play, "Heaven Can Wait," the Contest play, "Command Performance," and the Senior Class play, "Arsenic and Old Lace," well represented the acting ability of our students. By keeping the audience in suspense and by continued fine acting, the dramatic department has had a very successful season.

STUDY GROUP

FEATURES

In effort to picture Fostoria High as it really is, we have devoted this section to snapshots of the school at large. Most of the pictures in this section have been contributed by the students and teachers. We have tried to bring together the daily activities and classes in and around the school in hope that they will some day remind us of the time we spent together in F.H.S.

ADVERTISEMENTS

We thank these organizations who have patronized our annual this year, making possible the contents of this book.

Their eye for business will be rewarded in the future by the students of Fostoria High who patronize our patrons.

Carrying On...

In this War period as in Peace time . . . The Gray Printing Company is "Carrying On"!

War Economy has demanded many unusual types of printing, and releasing many of our men to the Armed Forces has resulted in major changes in our organization At the same time we are trying to maintain the best in quality and skilled craftsmanship, which has been an unwritten trademark of The Gray Printing Company for fifty-five years.

You will continue to receive from "Gray" this quality and service so far as it is possible under existing circumstances.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

To those who have spent their valuable time in perfecting the 1943 yearbook, we wish to express our sincere appreciation. Especially to Pat Marchion, who courteously gave his time to the taking of class pictures; to the various advisors, who worked with the staff so that fewer mistakes would be made; and to the administration for their cooperation. Without the splendid efforts of Mr. William M. Hawk this annual could not have been completed.

To the various staff heads and their assistants we say "Thank you very much." You have done a fine job and one you may well be proud of.

To the future heads of the RED AND BLACK we say, "Good luck and better yearbooks!"
